

Whilst the committee of the Tockwith and District Agricultural Society take all possible measures to ensure a safe and enjoyable competition, you are reminded that riding is a risk sport. Tockwith & District Agricultural Society accept no liability for injury caused to yourself, your horse/pony or your vehicle(s) whilst on the show ground.

GENERAL RULES

If any exhibitor shall, in the opinion of the Show Committee, infringe any of the Rules and Regulations of this Show, he shall be liable to forfeit all claims to any prize which may have been awarded to him, or he may otherwise be dealt with as the Committee in their absolute discretion may think fit.

Neither the Tockwith and District Agricultural Society Limited nor any of its trustees, directors, members or any relevant landowners accept any responsibility whatsoever for any loss, damage or injury howsoever or whatsoever arising as a result of attendance at this event.

In the event of a complaint in writing being lodged with the Secretary against an exhibitor or competitor, the person complaining shall at the time deposit £20 which shall be forfeited should the complaint not be sustained or refunded if the complaint is sustained.

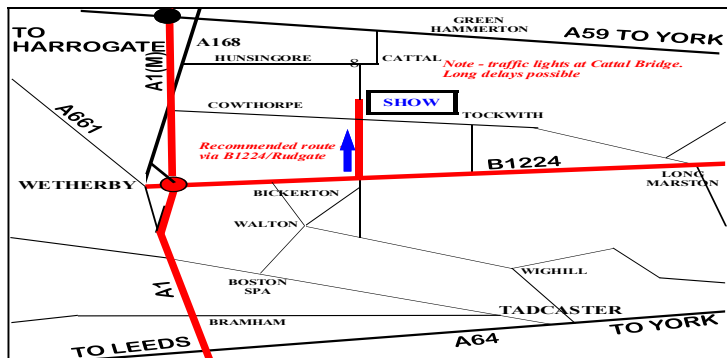

All competitors and exhibitors of livestock, including horses, must have their own Public Liability Insurance.

The Judge's decision is final.

Publicity and Data Protection

Once you have read and understood the rules & regulations (page 9) of the main show schedule and have ticked the box on the entry form to proceed with your entry, the Society may use your information to do the following:

- a) store, process and retain, including electronically, all data and personal information provided by exhibitors, for the purposes of operating the Show, maintaining appropriate records and communicating with the exhibitor in future concerning any of the Society's activities;
- b) publicise the names and home locations (town & county only) of exhibitors, including but not limited to prize winners, in Show catalogues, on the Show website and elsewhere as part of the operation and promotion of the Show and future shows;
- c) photograph any exhibitor or other person on the Showground and store and use the resulting image (including edited or altered versions) for any of the Society's commercial or non-commercial purposes in all and any media, including, without limitation, use in promotional materials and on the Society's website, or supply to carefully selected third parties for use for their own purposes. The Society shall own the copyright in any such images;
- d) Publish the details and results of any disputes and/or appeals.
